

Three Pleat Kid's Face Mask

Supplies:

- Fabric 7½"x13"
- End casing (2) 2¼"x4"
- Cord or ribbon; 36" long
- OnPoint-TV YouTube: Face Masks for Kids (<https://youtu.be/Xp81N5hbVtg>)

Instructions:

1. Cut fabric 7½"x13".
2. Fold in half and sew about a ¼" from the edge.

3. Turn right side out. Roll the fabric so the seam is about a ¼" from the top fold and press.

4. Create three pleats around 1" facing down from the top; pressing each pleat as you go. Try not to have the pleats under each other. The mask should now measure 7½"x3". Press one last time.

5. Stitch the pleats down about ¼" from the each on each side.

6. To make end casings, cut two pieces of fabric 2¼"x4". Fold each end of the short edges ½" and press.

7. Fold in half the long side and press. Take the top half, fold in half again and press. End casing should measure 3" long. You may have to adjust your pleats to make the end casings fit.

8. Fold in half—long side. Fold one half one more time.
9. Attach end casing to pleated mask.
Sew $\frac{1}{2}$ " from raw edge,
10. Fold end casing around raw edge.
Sew down.
11. Thread the cord or ribbon from the bottom of the mask on both sides to tie behind the head.

Questions? Email Nancy at quiltingwithnancy@gmail.com.

Kid's Cup Mask

Supplies:

- 18"x22" fat quarter for two masks
- Cotton gauze fabric
- cord or ribbon for mask; 36"-40" long

Instructions:

1. Cut out the pattern from the next page.
2. Pin the pattern to the fat quarter and cut out a total of four pieces for one mask.
3. With right sides together, sew together the curve part of the pattern a $\frac{1}{4}$ " from the edge. Open the section and press the seam to the right.
4. Sew together the curve part of two more pattern pieces. Open the section and press the seam to the left.
5. With right sides together, butting up the seams, pin and sew around the top, one side and the bottom. Leave one side open.
6. Turn right sides out. Tuck in the edges of the open side and pin. Sew around all the sides closing the opening.
7. Fold over each side $\frac{1}{2}$ " and sew on the stitch line to make the openings to insert the tie.
8. Thread the cord or ribbon from the bottom of the mask on both sides to tie behind the head.

Kid's Cup Mask Pattern

